Dear Mr. and Mrs. Ransom,

It is with great difficulty that I write this letter expressing my deepest sympathy over the loss of your son Robert—known to us as Mike. I have never written a letter like this before, but then, in my six years of nursing I have never met as courageous an individual as your son.

Mike was never afraid and although I'm sure he realized what was happening, he never, never lost his smile or his courage.

I guess I really wanted you to know that Mike did not die alone, with no one caring. I care, we all cared — we all share your sorrow.

Be ever so proud of Mike!

Most sincerely,

Then sing, ye Birds, sing,
Sing a joyous song!
And let the young Lambs bound
As to the tabor's sound!
We in thought
Will join your throng,
Ye that pipe and ye that play,
Ye that through your hearts to-day
Feel the gladness of the May!
What though the radiance
Which once so bright
Be now forever taken from my sight,
Though nothing can bring back the hour
Of splendor in the grass,
Of glory in the flower;
We will grieve not, rather find Strength in what remains behind;
In the primal sympathy
Which, having been, must ever be;
In the soothing thoughts that spring
Out of human suffering;
In the faith that looks through death,
In years that bring the philosophic mind.

IT'S RAINING IN LOVE

I don't know what it is,
but I distrust myself
when I start to like a girl a lot.

It makes me nervous.
I don't say the right things or perhaps I start to examine, evaluate,
compute what I am saying.

If I say, "Do you think it's going to rain?"
and she says, "I don't know,"
I start thinking: Does she really like me?

In other words I get a little creepy.

A friend of mine once said,
"It's twenty times better to be friends with someone than it is to be in love with them."

I think he's right.

BUT

Barb

if a girl likes me a lot and starts getting real nervous and suddenly begins asking me funny questions and looks sad if I give the wrong answers and she says things like,
"Do you think it's going to rain?"
and I say, "It beats me," and she says, "Oh,"
and looks a little sad at the clear blue sky,
I think: Thank God, it's you, baby, this time instead of me.

To be one of the group;
Belong to the crowd,
On the inside looking out,
Being a part of the whole.

It's not the signs and cheerleaders that compose what is called spirit, it's what you feel, (for Phil)!

THINKING

If you think you are beaten, you are;
If you think you dare not, you don't.
If you'd like to win but you think you can't,
It's almost a cinch you won't.

If you think you'll lose, you're lost,
For out of the world we find Success begins with a fellow's will—
It's all in the state of mind.

If you think you're outclassed, you are;
You've got to think high to rise;
You've got to be sure of yourself before
You can ever win a prize.

Life's battle don't always go
To stronger or faster man;
But soon or late the man who wins,
Is the one who thinks he can.

put nice girl in my history

in all your attempt.
Have fun & Be good (like me)
Delline Fair

Ann,
To a very nice
girl I met at young life.
Remember our Nobel survey class - some of the best books. Good luck in the future & have fun always.
Carol Haggins

Ann;
To a really nice girl who I got to know this year.
Remember all the fun
we had at a young life and in school. I don't know if you went,
but if you get a chance, go to Laurelville,
It's a great place.
Good luck in all you do.

Larry

Anne,
To an okay girl stay that way. Maybe someday will meet in Texas, Stay a Christian and remember to always keep in mind that God gave you everything and you should be more than thankful.
I only said this because sometimes we (everybody) forget.

Love
Annette

Ann
We haven't known each other very long. But it's the short time. I've found you out to be a very nice person. Even though I don't think you've found anything in me
